Planned Giving and Bequests

A gift in your will, trust, or beneficiary designation can sustain the work of His Redeeming Love Care Network for generations to come. Bequests and gifts are deductible under applicable provisions of Internal Revenue Code Sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

Sample Bequest Language

Please share this wording with your attorney:

> I give, devise, and bequeath to His Redeeming Love Care Network, a nonprofit organization recognized as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, EIN 41-4912979, with a mailing address of 602 Old Camp Court, Pike Road, AL 36064, the sum of $_____ (or _____ percent of the residue of my estate, or the following described property: _____) to be used for its general charitable purposes.

Other Ways to Leave a Legacy

- Name HRL Care Network as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy, IRA, or retirement account
- Make a gift of appreciated stock or property
- Establish a memorial or honor gift for a loved one

Let Us Thank You

If you have included HRL Care Network in your estate plans, please let us know at admin@hrlcarenetwork.org so we can thank you and honor your wishes.

HRL Care Network does not provide legal or tax advice. Please consult your attorney or tax advisor about your individual situation. His Redeeming Love Care Network is recognized by the IRS as a 501(c)(3) public charity under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi), EIN 41-4912979. Contributions are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law.

Have you included us in your plans? Email your details to admin@hrlcarenetwork.org.